§ 36.305 Alternatives to barrier removal

- (a) General. Where a public accommodation can demonstrate that barrier removal is not readily achievable, the public accommodation shall not fail to make its goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations available through alternative methods, if those methods are readily achievable.
- (b) Examples. Examples of alternatives to barrier removal include, but are not limited to, the following actions—
- (1) Providing curb service or home delivery;
- (2) Retrieving merchandise from inaccessible shelves or racks:
- (3) Relocating activities to accessible locations:
- (c) Multiscreen cinemas. If it is not readily achievable to remove barriers to provide access by persons with mobility impairments to all of the theaters of a multiscreen cinema, the cinema shall establish a film rotation schedule that provides reasonable access for individuals who use wheelchairs to all films. Reasonable notice shall be provided to the public as to the location and time of accessible showings.

§ 36.306 Personal devices and services.

This part does not require a public accommodation to provide its customers, clients, or participants with personal devices, such as wheelchairs; individually prescribed devices, such as prescription eyeglasses or hearing aids; or services of a personal nature including assistance in eating, toileting, or dressing.

§ 36.307 Accessible or special goods.

- (a) This part does not require a public accommodation to alter its inventory to include accessible or special goods that are designed for, or facilitate use by, individuals with disabilities.
- (b) A public accommodation shall order accessible or special goods at the request of an individual with disabilities, if, in the normal course of its operation, it makes special orders on request for unstocked goods, and if the accessible or special goods can be obtained from a supplier with whom the public accommodation customarily does business.

(c) Examples of accessible or special goods include items such as Brailled versions of books, books on audio cassettes, closed-captioned video tapes, special sizes or lines of clothing, and special foods to meet particular dietary needs.

§36.308 Seating in assembly areas.

- (a) Existing facilities. (1) To the extent that it is readily achievable, a public accommodation in assembly areas shall—
- (i) Provide a reasonable number of wheelchair seating spaces and seats with removable aisle-side arm rests; and
- (ii) Locate the wheelchair seating spaces so that they—
- (A) Are dispersed throughout the seating area;
- (B) Provide lines of sight and choice of admission prices comparable to those for members of the general public:
- (C) Adjoin an accessible route that also serves as a means of egress in case of emergency; and
- (D) Permit individuals who use wheelchairs to sit with family members or other companions.
- (2) If removal of seats is not readily achievable, a public accommodation shall provide, to the extent that it is readily achievable to do so, a portable chair or other means to permit a family member or other companion to sit with an individual who uses a wheelchair.
- (3) The requirements of paragraph (a) of this section shall not be interpreted to exceed the standards for alterations in subpart D of this part.
- (b) New construction and alterations. The provision and location of wheelchair seating spaces in newly constructed or altered assembly areas shall be governed by the standards for new construction and alterations in subpart D of this part.

§ 36.309 Examinations and courses.

(a) General. Any private entity that offers examinations or courses related to applications, licensing, certification, or credentialing for secondary
